

Marshall County Extension Service Meeting Room Policy Effective as of October 27, 2011

The policies set forth in this document apply to anyone reserving a meeting room at the Marshall County Extension Office located at 1933 Mayfield Highway, Benton, Kentucky. The rooms covered in these policies include the meeting room and the kitchen. These policies will serve as guidelines for meeting room use from this day until such time as new guidelines are adopted. As such, all previous documents relating to policies on meeting rooms shall be considered null and void from this day forward.

The meeting facilities of the Marshall County Extension Office have a primary purpose of meeting the educational needs of Extension sponsored activities. Outside groups may reserve and use the meeting rooms for educational programs/activities; however, the Marshall County Extension Service and its affiliated organizations (i.e., District Board, County Extension Council, 4-H, Homemakers, Ag Development Council, Master Gardeners, etc.) accepts no responsibility for any loss, injury, or damage to persons or property arising from facilities use. Educational programs of the Cooperative Extension Service and at the Extension facility shall serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin. Signing the rental form is indicative of your compliance with these regulations

DEFINITION OF USER GROUPS (Effective 7/1/09)

First Priority Users – Marshall County Cooperative Extension Groups

Marshall County Cooperative Extension Groups and multi-county Extension organizations involving Marshall County Extension groups have first priority in reserving the meeting rooms at the Extension facility. At least one Marshall County Extension Agent is directly involved with the organization/program. (The agent does not need to be present at the activity.) These groups include, but are not limited to: the Marshall County Extension Council, the District Board, the County 4-H Council, County 4-H Clubs, Extension Homemaker Clubs, the Extension Homemakers' Advisory Council, agriculture advisory groups, Extension staff development activities, and programs being directly coordinated by a Marshall County Extension Agent. These groups will be able to reserve the meeting rooms up to 12 months in advance with agent approval. No deposit or rental fee.

Second Priority Users – Marshall County Cooperative Extension Support Groups

Support groups are those organizations outside the umbrella and program definition of Marshall County Extension who are related to its efforts. These could be commodity groups, advisory councils, organizations that have a significant or unique tie to Extension (e.g., USDA, NRCS, Fair Board, Marshall County Government, CPPC, Domestic Violence Task Force, Drug Court, etc). At least one Marshall County Extension Agent directly involved with the organization/program. The agent does not need to be present at the activity. (If the program does not directly tie to Extension, then the group could be moved to "Third Priority User" for said program/activity). These groups will be able to reserve the meeting rooms up to 90 days (3 months) in advance with agent approval. No rental fee. A $75 deposit is due at the time of the reservation. The deposit will be returned if the meeting room is left in a clean and orderly condition.

Third Priority Users – Non-Profit Groups

Civic, educational, government, university, religious, and cultural organizations that have qualified and received notification of their non-profit tax-exempt status under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code. Groups whose purpose would make them eligible for non-profit status under the IRS definition, but do not have a notification will be charged the supply fee plus a $75 deposit if approved in advance by the Marshall County Extension District Board and/or Extension Agents.

Third Priority Users may schedule the meeting room up to 60 days (2 months) in advance; however, can still be moved for a Priority I or II meeting with 30 days notice.

Third Priority Users will be assessed a supply fee to help cover utility, janitorial, and supply costs. The supply fee will be $25 per day plus a $75 deposit is due at the time of the reservation. The deposit will be returned if the meeting room is left in a clean and orderly condition.

Fourth Priority Users – For Profit Groups & Private Functions

For profit groups presenting educational, business, and training seminars will have fourth priority for reserving and using the meeting room at the Marshall County Extension office. Private functions include, but are not limited to: baby or wedding showers, receptions held by others who are not Priority I, II, or III users (e.g., wedding receptions), family reunions, social affairs, sorority/fraternity functions, etc.

Fourth Priority User groups may schedule the meeting room up to 60 days in advance; however, can still be moved for a Priority I or II meeting with 30 days notice.

Fourth Priority Users will be assessed a rental fee of $150 per day. A $75 refundable deposit is due at the time of the reservation. This deposit will be returned if the meeting room is left in a clean and orderly condition.

Political Fundraisers and/or Partisan Political Activities/Programs (Effective 7/1/09)

Since the Marshall County Extension Service's primary purpose is to serve as an educational resource for our community and as part of its partnership with the University of Kentucky, political fund raisers and/or partisan political meetings shall not be used to endorse, promote, or support any political candidate or political party. Extension Service facilities may be used as a public forum to which all candidates shall be invited to participate. In other words, no political fundraisers and/or partisan political events can be held at the Marshall County Extension office.

Phone # 270-681-5992 is to be used only in an emergency.

9. Payment of rent shall be made prior to the event and in addition to the deposit fee. All fees shall be made payable to: Marshall County Extension Service.

10. Effective 7/1/09, due to the increased demand for the Marshall County Extension Service's meeting rooms a cancellation policy has been developed. If your organization needs to cancel a previously reserved date, then the cancellation must be received within five (5) business days of the reservation for a full refund of deposit and any paid fees. The cancellation may be by phone, e-mail, or fax. If the cancellation is received after the five business days, then the deposit will not be refunded. The only exceptions for a cancellation after the five day grace period will be for severe weather (Marshall County Schools out or dismissed early due to weather), acts of nature (e.g., earthquake), local or national states of emergency, and/or an emergency at or closing of the Marshall County Extension Service facility (e.g., snow/ice, water leak, power outage, etc.).

RULES

1. Drugs or alcohol are not allowed in the building or on the premises. Intoxicated persons are not permitted on the premises. Tobacco products may not be used in the building. Cigarette butts must be disposed in the proper receptacles provided.
2. Appropriate clothing including shirts and shoes must be worn at all times in compliance with health regulations.
3. All non Extension meetings with food must either be catered or prepared at home as the kitchen facilities are not to be used for food preparation.
4. Refreshments/coffee is the responsibility of the user group. The Marshall County Extension Service will not provide any kitchen or eating utensils such as paper products, dishes, or flatware unless previously arranged.
5. User is responsible for proper disposal of all garbage and removal from property or to the green box near the Slickback Road entrance. A vacuum is available for your use and is located in the storage room.
6. User is responsible for the pick up and return of keys if the meeting is at a time when no authorized Extension personnel will be in the building. Keys must be returned by 4:00 p.m. the next business day. You may leave the key in the drop box located outside the front doors. Your deposit will need to be picked up or you will need to let us know if you want the check mailed back to you.
7. Building must be vacated by 10:30 p.m. except for meetings involving an Extension Agent.
